GAMC 2015

Meeting called by President: Chris Baldwin at 7:20 PM Type of meeting Attendees John Schuler, Chris Baldwin, Bhavik Shah, and Nada Jones Note taker Secretary: Nada Jones  There is not a quorum, so no voting can be done at this meeting. Treasurer's Report End of December: Our balance was $52,187.82 in the checking account. Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12. Chris: We'll want to move more into the capital fund in the near future. On January 12, 2016, Chris went with Bhavik to withdraw Sharon McDaniel's name from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31 to yinspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March). Pond Maintenance: Repair needs to be done by Keith of Countryside. It's not done yet.	1.28.2016	7:00 PM-8:00PM	138 W. Flagstone Drive
Attendees John Schuler, Chris Baldwin, Bhavik Shah, and Nada Jones  There is not a quorum, so no voting can be done at this meeting. There is not a quorum, so no voting can be done at this meeting. Treasurer's Report End of December: Our balance was $52,187.82 in the checking account. Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12. Chris: We'll want to move more into the capital fund in the near future. On January 12, 2016, Chris went with Bhavik to withdraw Sharon McDaniel's name from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).		President: Chris Baldwin at 7:20 PM
 There is not a quorum, so no voting can be done at this meeting. Treasurer's Report End of December: Our balance was $52,187.82 in the checking account. Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12. Chris: We'll want to move more into the capital fund in the near future. On January 12, 2016, Chris went with Bhavik to withdraw Sharon McDaniel's name from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).		Monthly Board Meeting
 There is not a quorum, so no voting can be done at this meeting. Treasurer's Report Discussion & Motions End of December: Our balance was $52,187.82 in the checking account. Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12. Chris: We'll want to move more into the capital fund in the near future. On January 12, 2016, Chris went with Bhavik to withdraw Sharon McDaniel's name from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).	Attendees	John Schuler, Chris Baldwin, Bhavik Shah, and Nada Jones
Treasurer's Report Discussion & Motions End of December: Our balance was $52,187.82 in the checking account. Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12. Chris: We'll want to move more into the capital fund in the near future. On January 12, 2016, Chris went with Bhavik to withdraw Sharon McDaniel's name from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).	Note taker	Secretary: Nada Jones
Discussion & Motions End of December: Our balance was $52,187.82 in the checking account. Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12. Chris: We'll want to move more into the capital fund in the near future. On January 12, 2016, Chris went with Bhavik to withdraw Sharon McDaniel's name from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31 st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).		 There is not a quorum, so no voting can be done at this meeting	ng.
Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12. Chris: We'll want to move more into the capital fund in the near future. On January 12, 2016, Chris went with Bhavik to withdraw Sharon McDaniel's name from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).	Treasurer's	s Report he is the new treasurer). Bhavik gave a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files. In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).		Our savings account (capital fund) balance was $10,009.12.
In reference to collections, we will not accept personal checks anymore Steve Blanchies of Neighborhood Resources (NR) needs to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).			me from the bank accounts and add Bhavik's (since to cash any checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he can deal with any billing fine related to insufficient funds that might result instead of GAMC. President's Report Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).	Bhavik gave a	a lien satisfaction (official document) to Chris for his files.
Chris: Four big things that happen yearly are the following • Three year contract signed with NR • Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) • NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) • Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).	to cash any c	checks he wants to accept and then issue us a new check. Then he
Three year contract signed with NR Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).	President's	s Report
Three year contract signed with NR Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills) Franchise tax (~$25) Chris talked to Steve Blanchies at NR. He's working on updating our list of homeowners who are delinquent in paying their assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).
assessments. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales have begun for homeowners who have reached that stage in the process. There are two court dates coming up (one in Feb and one in March).	Discussion	 Three year contract signed with NR Stormwater management program application (due 31st w/inspection sheet) NCCo assessment billing form due Feb. 14 (to sign up for NCCo to send out assessment bills)
Pond Maintenance: Repair needs to be done by Keith of Countryside. It's not done yet.		· · · ·
	assessments	. He should have a report by next month (February). Sheriff sales h	ave begun for homeowners who have reached that

Old Business

Insurance: We do have general liability for the Maintenance Corp. and operations. We should be covered for ponds, but Chris will double check.

 $Land scaping\ contract\ is\ not\ ready\ yet,\ and\ approval\ for\ cleaning\ ponds\ is\ not\ ready.$

Meeting was adjourned at 8:10 PM

The next meeting is set for the 3^{rd} Thursday of February at 7 PM.